USF System
Fact Book 2010/11

The University of South Florida System is a young and emerging system formed to bring its member institutions together to collectively serve the Tampa Bay region and beyond, resulting in a stronger presence and a distinctiveness that provides an unstoppable competitive differentiation. The USF System is tasked with finding ways to capitalize on synergies and economies of scales among its institutions that are of benefit to students, faculty, staff, alumni, and communities. As a solution for a metropolitan region of multiple major cities, the USF System is comprised of four members embodying distinct and differentiated missions: USF Tampa, the doctoral granting, research intensive member institution and three master's level institutions, USF St. Petersburg, USF Sarasota-Manatee, and USF Polytechnic. The first two institutions are separately accredited; the other two are in the process of becoming separately accredited.

The USF System member institutions span the Tampa Bay region; however, true to their differentiated missions, the member institutions collectively provide educational services across the state of Florida and beyond.
